

Saturday June 1

10:00 Meet Captain Jack Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
Join Jack's Crew and learn what it takes to be a real pirate!

10:00 Darcy Nair Pirate Hunters' Camp
Darcy's experience ranges from traditional and modern celtic music to renaissance madrigals, English sea shanties and pub songs, bluegrass, and modern songwriting. In addition to singing lead and harmony vocals, Darcy plays hammered dulcimer, Irish bouzouki, English concertina, bodhran and rhythm bones.

10:00 Bawdy Buccaneers Blackbeard Stage
Sea chanties and ditties from the 14th to 17th century will have your hands clapping and your toes tapping. Don't be afraid to sing along as it is most welcome.

10:30 Hawk & Owl Show Battery Point
Featuring live birds of prey... see the birds who are masters of the sky and hunters of the night and hear about the fantastic abilities they have developed to hunt and find their food.

10:30 Cliff Long Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
Captain Thomas Flint provides a family friendly musical show featuring both traditional and original songs and stories from the "Golden Age of Piracy."

10:30 Robin Welch Pirate Hunters' Camp
A master of the guitar, Robin performs and sings favorite chanties and classics

11:00 House of Cadarn Bunch of Grapes Tavern
Stacy Cassidy and Roger Collins perform early American sea chanties.

11:00 Stephen Christoff Pirate Hunters' Camp
Stephen Christoff will sing rambunctious songs of drink, thievery and the sea and play several unique instruments including the Octave Mandolin, Jew's Harp, Musical Saw, Spanish Guitar, Trombone, Comb and Paper, Spoons and Hands.

11:00 Darcy Nair Blackbeard Stage
Darcy's experience ranges from traditional and modern celtic music to renaissance madrigals, English sea shanties and pub songs, bluegrass, and modern songwriting. In addition to singing lead and harmony vocals, Darcy plays hammered dulcimer, Irish bouzouki, English concertina, bodhran and rhythm bones.

11:00 Motley Tones Battery Point
This dynamic group will sing madrigals for the king by day, pub songs for the hoi polloi by night, and love songs & sailor songs all the day long. Don't be surprised if you get "roped into" some of their antics on stage and off. Be sure to bring the wee ones for the sing-alongs.

11:30 C Shells Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
This 4-time Parents' Choice Award Winning children's duo will have you and your little scallywags singing and dancing along with songs of the sea and other fun songs.

11:30 Clan MacCool Pirate Hunters' Camp
A musical sail through pirate lore with the original songs of this lively, interactive crew...sea chanties, toe tappin' jigs and reels, and great harmonies always accompany this piratical adventure.

12:00 Shadow Players Bunch of Grapes Tavern
Live pirate sword fighting/comedy street performance group. Audience interaction combined with real steel swordplay, whip work, pirate songs and lots of laughs!

12:00 Robin Welch Blackbeard Stage
A master of the guitar, Robin performs and sings favorite chanties and classics

12:00 Cannon Shoot Battery Point

12:30 Picaroon School of Piracy & Privateering Bunch of Grapes Tavern
School of the Pirate, with "Tiger" Jim Rockwell, head master and chief picaroon. Both children and adults will learn the ropes. Featuring: Scuttle Hatch; essential knots and skills with small stuff; rope tricks to confound and fascinate; boarding drills with musket; pike and sword (kid safe) and more. Learn to speak the language of a Pirate. Each session is a little different with some new tidbit of knowledge about our favorite historical miscreants.

12:30 Meet Captain Jack Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
Join Jack's Crew and learn what it takes to be a real pirate!

12:30 Motley Tones Pirate Hunters' Camp
This dynamic group will sing madrigals for the king by day, pub songs for the hoi polloi by night, and love songs & sailor songs all the day long. Don't be surprised if you get "roped into" some of their antics on stage and off. Be sure to bring the wee ones for the sing-alongs.

12:30 Wenches of Syrens Call Blackbeard Stage
Be lured in by these sea gypsies as they perform belly dancing and traditional folk dance balancing and twirling a pirate cutlass

1:00 The Brigands Bunch of Grapes Tavern
The Brigands bring a fresh sound to traditional fiddle tunes, sea chanties and ballads of the ocean. This family based quartet has delighted piratical audiences for the past 10 years, with the Blackbeard Festival being their home port.

1:00 Bawdy Buccaneers Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
Sea chanties and ditties from the 14th to 17th century will have your hands clapping and your toes tapping. Don't be afraid to sing along as it is most welcome.

1:00 House of Cadarn Blackbeard Stage
Stacy Cassidy and Roger Collins perform early American sea chanties.

1:00 Cannon Shoot & Demo Battery Point

1:15 Cutlass Lessons Battery Point
A chance for the little swashbucklers to play pirate and learn to handle a favorite pirate weapon

1:30 Pep the Juggling Pirate Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
This fun and engaging pirate performs a variety of amazing juggling and balancing feats

1:30 Darcy Nair Pirate Hunters' Camp
Darcy's experience ranges from traditional and modern celtic music to renaissance madrigals, English sea shanties and pub songs, bluegrass, and modern songwriting. In addition to singing lead and harmony vocals, Darcy plays hammered dulcimer, Irish bouzouki, English concertina, bodhran and rhythm bones.

1:55 Cannon Shoot Battery Point

2:00 Stephen Christoff Bunch of Grapes Tavern

2:00 Shadow Players Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
Live pirate sword fighting/comedy street performance group. Audience interaction combined with real steel swordplay, whip work, pirate songs and lots of laughs!

2:00 Bawdy Buccaneers Pirate Hunters' Camp
Sea chanties and ditties from the 14th to 17th century will have your hands clapping and your toes tapping. Don't be afraid to sing along as it is most welcome.

2:00 Wenches of Syrens Call Blackbeard Stage
Be lured in by these sea gypsies as they perform belly dancing and traditional folk dance balancing and twirling a pirate cutlass

2:00 Robin Welch Battery Point

2:30 Calico Jenny Bunch of Grapes Tavern
Traditional chanties laced with humorous songs about seafaring mermaids, sirens and lady pirates, accompanied by hurdy-gurdy, fiddle, whistles, guitar, mandolin and concertina.

2:30 Picaroon School of Piracy & Privateering Bunch of Grapes Tavern
School of the Pirate, with "Tiger" Jim Rockwell, head master and chief picaroon. Both children and adults will learn the ropes. Featuring: Scuttle Hatch; essential knots and skills with small stuff; rope tricks to confound and fascinate; boarding drills with musket; pike and sword (kid safe) and more. Learn to speak the language of a Pirate. Each session is a little different with some new tidbit of knowledge about our favorite historical miscreants.

2:30 House of Cadarn Pirate Hunters' Camp
Stacy Cassidy and Roger Collins perform early American sea chanties.

2:30 The Brigands Blackbeard Stage
The Brigands bring a fresh sound to traditional fiddle tunes, sea chanties and ballads of the ocean. This family based quartet has delighted piratical audiences for the past 10 years, with the Blackbeard Festival being their home port.

3:00 Pep the Juggling Pirate Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
This fun and engaging pirate performs a variety of amazing juggling and balancing feats

3:00 Oreo the Bad Pirate Bird Battery Point
An African Raven; his heart is as black as his feathers, and he will tell you so. He is a truly rotten member of the Crew who lies, fights, and steals... see who will win the duel between Oreo and Bloodthirsty Barbara!

3:30 C Shells Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
This 4-time Parents' Choice Award Winning children's duo will have you and your little scallywags singing and dancing along with songs of the sea and other fun songs.

3:30 Wenches of Syrens Call Pirate Hunters' Camp
Be lured in by these sea gypsies as they perform belly dancing and traditional folk dance balancing and twirling a pirate cutlass

3:30 Motley Tones Blackbeard Stage
This dynamic group will sing madrigals for the king by day, pub songs for the hoi polloi by night, and love songs & sailor songs all the day long. Don't be surprised if you get "roped into" some of their antics on stage and off. Be sure to bring the wee ones for the sing-alongs.

3:30 Darcy Nair Battery Point
Darcy's experience ranges from traditional and modern celtic music to renaissance madrigals, English sea shanties and pub songs, bluegrass, and modern songwriting. In addition to singing lead and harmony vocals, Darcy plays hammered dulcimer, Irish bouzouki, English concertina, bodhran and rhythm bones.

4:00 Shadow Players Bunch of Grapes Tavern
Live pirate sword fighting/comedy street performance group. Audience interaction combined with real steel swordplay, whip work, pirate songs and lots of laughs!

4:00 Calico Jenny Pirate Hunters' Camp
Traditional chanties laced with humorous songs about seafaring mermaids, sirens and lady pirates, accompanied by hurdy-gurdy, fiddle, whistles, guitar, mandolin and concertina.

4:00 Small Arms Weapons Demo Battery Point
Visiting crews get the opportunity to fire their guns

4:30 Cliff Long Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
Captain Thomas Flint provides a family friendly musical show featuring both traditional and original songs and stories from the "Golden Age of Piracy."

4:30 Bawdy Buccaneers Pirate Hunters' Camp
Sea chanties and ditties from the 14th to 17th century will have your hands clapping and your toes tapping. Don't be afraid to sing along as it is most welcome.

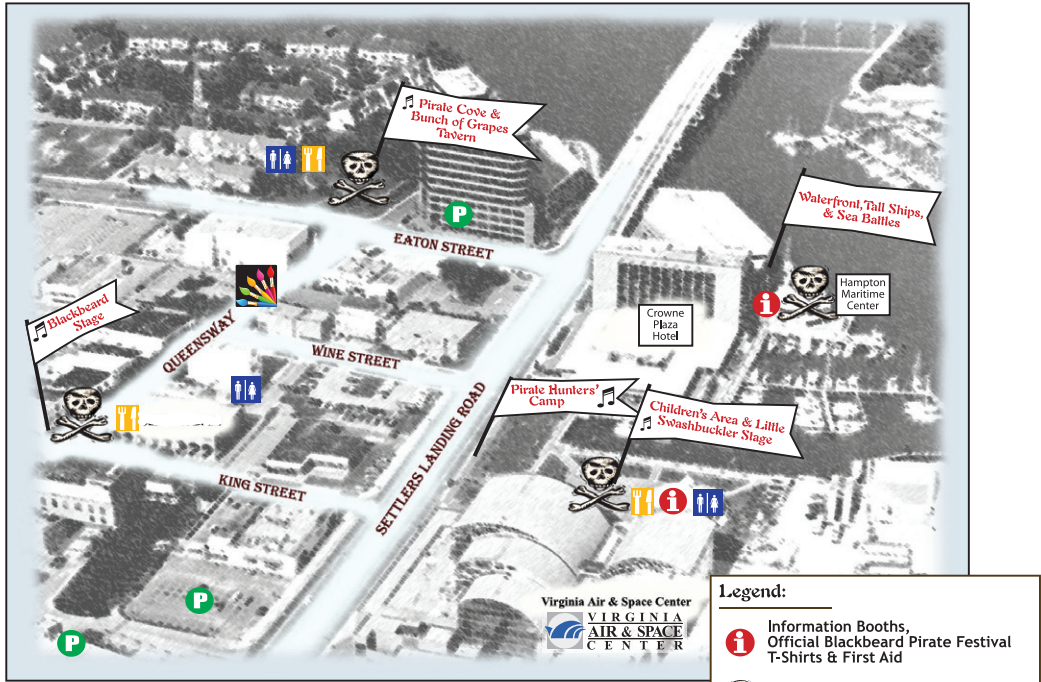

4:30 Ohana Style (Youth band) Blackbeard Stage

4:30 Crudbeard's Cannon Lesson Battery Point
Be a part of a cannon crew and learn the process of loading a real cannon

5pm Picaroon School of Piracy & Privateering Bunch of Grapes Tavern
School of the Pirate, with "Tiger" Jim Rockwell, head master and chief picaroon. Both children and adults will learn the ropes. Featuring: Scuttle Hatch; essential knots and skills with small stuff; rope tricks to confound and fascinate; boarding drills with musket; pike and sword (kid safe) and more. Learn to speak the language of a Pirate. Each session is a little different with some new tidbit of knowledge about our favorite historical miscreants.

5pm Stephen Christoff Pirate Hunters' Camp
Stephen Christoff will sing rambunctious songs of drink, thievery and the sea and play several unique instruments including the Octave Mandolin, Jew's Harp, Musical Saw, Spanish Guitar, Trombone, Comb and Paper, Spoons and Hands.

Downtown Hampton

Presenting Partners of the 14th Annual
Blackbeard Pirate Festival:

LIVING HISTORY ORDERS OF THE DAY

Saturday, June 1

10:00	Cannon Barrage to open Festival	Battery Point
10:00	Address by Governor Spotswood	Bunch of Grapes Tavern
10:15	Tavern Talk	Bunch of Grapes Tavern
11:00	Naval/Pirate Skirmish	Waterfront
11:30	Merchant Vessel Seizure	Waterfront
12:30	Skirmish	Battery Point
12:30	The Press Gang	Carousel Park

2:15	Blackbeard's Last Fight	Waterfront
3:15	Dockside Processional & Trial	Bunch of Grapes Tavern
5:30	Pirate Funeral	Corner of Wine & Queens Way
9:00	Fireworks	Battery Point
Sunday, June 2
11:55	Cannon Fire to Open Festival	Battery Point
12:45	Pirates Strike Back	Waterfront
3:00	The Press Gang	Carousel Park
6:00	Festival Closing Cannons	Battery Point

5pm	Rellen youth band	Blackbeard Stage
5pm	Cutlass Lessons	Battery Point
A chance for the little swashbucklers to play pirate and learn to handle a favorite pirate weapon
5:30	Clan MacCool	Bunch of Grapes Tavern
A musical sail through pirate lore with the original songs of this lively, interactive crew...sea chanties, toe tappin' jigs and reels, and great harmonies always accompany this piratical adventure.
5:30	Meet Captain Jack	Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
Join Jack's Crew and learn what it takes to be a real pirate!
5:30	House of Cadarn	Pirate Hunters' Camp
Stacy Cassidy and Roger Collins perform early American sea chanties.
5:30	Walk the Plank	Battery Point
Will Crudbeard make you walk the plank or can you plead for your life and save yourself from a watery end?
5:55	Cannon Shoot	Battery Point

6pm C Shells Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
This 4-time Parents' Choice Award Winning children's duo will have you and your little scallywags singing and dancing along with songs of the sea and other fun songs.

6pm Darcy Nair Pirate Hunters' Camp

Darcy's experience ranges from traditional and modern celtic music to renaissance madrigals, English sea shanties and pub songs, bluegrass, and modern songwriting. In addition to singing lead and harmony vocals, Darcy plays hammered dulcimer, Irish bouzouki, English concertina, bodhran and rhythm bones.

6pm The UnXpected (Youth band) Blackbeard Stage

6pm Cutlass Lessons Battery Point
A chance for the little swashbucklers to play pirate and learn to handle a favorite pirate weapon

6:30 Wenches of Syrens Call Bunch of Grapes Tavern
Be lured in by these sea gypsies as they perform belly dancing and traditional folk dance balancing and twirling a pirate cutlass

6:30 Robin Welch Pirate Hunters' Camp
A master of the guitar, Robin performs and sings favorite chanties and classics

7pm The Brigands Bunch of Grapes Tavern
The Brigands bring a fresh sound to traditional fiddle tunes, sea chanties and ballads of the ocean. This family based quartet has delighted piratical audiences for the past 10 years, with the Blackbeard Festival being their home port.

7pm Cliff Long Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
Captain Thomas Flint provides a family friendly musical show featuring both traditional and original songs and stories from the "Golden Age of Piracy."

7pm Stephen Christoff Pirate Hunters' Camp
Stephen Christoff will sing rambunctious songs of drink, thievery and the sea and play several unique instruments including the Octave Mandolin, Jew's Harp, Musical Saw, Spanish Guitar, Trombone, Comb and Paper, Spoons and Hands.

7pm Jack DeWitt youth band Blackbeard Stage

8:00 Pub Sing Bunch of Grapes Tavern

Sea chanties, working and drinking songs are part of the pirates' life. Become a part of the crew as you learn some of the pirate standards, "Drunken Sailor", "Wyldy Rover", "Strike the Bell" with a little nautical humor thrown in.

8:00 Blue Ridge Country youth band Blackbeard Stage

9:30 The Blue Aces Blackbeard Stage

From the USAF Heritage of America Band

Sunday, June 2, 2013

12:00 Bunch of Grapes Tavern The Brigands
The Brigands bring a fresh sound to traditional fiddle tunes, sea chanties and ballads of the ocean. This family based quartet has delighted piratical audiences for the past 10 years, with the Blackbeard Festival being their home port.

12pm Meet Captain Jack Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
Join Jack's Crew and learn what it takes to be a real pirate!

12:00 Darcy Nair Pirate Hunters' Camp
Darcy's experience ranges from traditional and modern celtic music to renaissance madrigals, English sea shanties and pub songs, bluegrass, and modern songwriting. In addition to singing lead and harmony vocals, Darcy plays hammered dulcimer, Irish bouzouki, English concertina, bodhran and rhythm bones.

12:00 Stephen Christoff Blackbeard Stage
Stephen Christoff will sing rambunctious songs of drink, thievery and the sea and play several unique instruments including the Octave Mandolin, Jew's Harp, Musical Saw, Spanish Guitar, Trombone, Comb and Paper, Spoons and Hands.

12:00 Hawk & Owl Show Battery Point
Featuring live birds of prey... see the birds who are masters of the sky and hunters of the night and hear about the fantastic abilities they have developed to hunt and find their food.

12:30 Picaroon School of Piracy & Privateering Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
School of the Pirate, with "Tiger" Jim Rockwell, head master and chief picaroon. Both children and adults will learn the ropes. Featuring: Scuttle Hatch; essential knots and skills with small stuff; rope tricks to confound and fascinate; boarding drills with musket; pike and sword (kid safe) and more. Learn to speak the language of a Pirate. Each session is a little different with some new tidbit of knowledge about our favorite historical miscreants.

12:30 Pirate Hunters' Camp House of Cadarn
Stacy Cassidy and Roger Collins perform early American sea chanties.

12:30 Robin Welch Blackbeard Stage
A master of the guitar, Robin performs and sings favorite chanties and classics

12:55 Cannon Shoot Battery Point

1:00 Bunch of Grapes Tavern Calico Jenny
Traditional chanties laced with humorous songs about seafaring mermaids, sirens and lady pirates, accompanied by hurdy-gurdy, fiddle, whistles, guitar, mandolin and concertina.

1:00 C Shells Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
This 4-time Parents' Choice Award Winning children's duo will have you and your little scallywags singing and dancing along with songs of the sea and other fun songs.

1:00 Wenches of Syrens Call Pirate Hunters' Camp
Be lured in by these sea gypsies as they perform belly dancing and traditional folk dance balancing and twirling a pirate cutlass

1:00 Bawdy Buccaneers Blackbeard Stage
Sea chanties and ditties from the 14th to 17th century will have your hands clapping and your toes tapping. Don't be afraid to sing along as it is most welcome.

1:00 Crudbeard's Cannon Lesson Battery Point
Be a part of a cannon crew and learn the process of loading a real cannon

1:30 Motley Tones Pirate Hunters' Camp
This dynamic group will sing madrigals for the king by day, pub songs for the hoi polloi by night, and love songs & sailor songs all the day long. Don't be surprised if you get "roped into" some of their antics on stage and off. Be sure to bring the wee ones for the sing-alongs.

1:30 AM Small Arms Weapons Demo Battery Point
Visiting crews get the opportunity to fire their guns

2:00 Clan MacCool Bunch of Grapes Tavern
A musical sail through pirate lore with the original songs of this lively, interactive crew...sea chanties, toe tappin' jigs and reels, and great harmonies always accompany this piratical adventure.

2:00 Pep the Juggling Pirate Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
This fun and engaging pirate performs a variety of amazing juggling and balancing feats

2:00 Stephen Christoff Blackbeard Stage
Stephen Christoff will sing rambunctious songs of drink, thievery and the sea and play several unique instruments including the Octave Mandolin, Jew's Harp, Musical Saw, Spanish Guitar, Trombone, Comb and Paper, Spoons and Hands.

2:00 Cutlass Lessons Battery Point
A chance for the little swashbucklers to play pirate and learn to handle a favorite pirate weapon

2:30 Calico Jenny Pirate Hunters' Camp
Traditional chanties laced with humorous songs about seafaring mermaids, sirens and lady pirates, accompanied by hurdy-gurdy, fiddle, whistles, guitar, mandolin and concertina.

2:30 Bawdy Buccaneers Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
Sea chanties and ditties from the 14th to 17th century will have your hands clapping and your toes tapping. Don't be afraid to sing along as it is most welcome.

2:30 Wenches of Syrens Call Blackbeard Stage
Be lured in by these sea gypsies as they perform belly dancing and traditional folk dance balancing and twirling a pirate cutlass

2:30 Robin Welch Battery Point
A master of the guitar, Robin performs and sings favorite chanties and classics

3:00 The Brigands Bunch of Grapes Tavern
The Brigands bring a fresh sound to traditional fiddle tunes, sea chanties and ballads of the ocean. This family based quartet has delighted piratical audiences for the past 10 years, with the Blackbeard Festival being their home port.

3:00 Picaroon School of Piracy & Privateering Lil Swashbucklers' Stage

School of the Pirate, with "Tiger" Jim Rockwell, head master and chief picaroon. Both children and adults will learn the ropes. Featuring: Scuttle Hatch; essential knots and skills with small stuff; rope tricks to confound and fascinate; boarding drills with musket; pike and sword (kid safe) and more. Learn to speak the language of a Pirate. Each session is a little different with some new tidbit of knowledge about our favorite historical miscreants.

3:00 Darcy Nair Blackbeard Stage
Darcy's experience ranges from traditional and modern celtic music to renaissance madrigals, English sea shanties and pub songs, bluegrass, and modern songwriting. In addition to singing lead and harmony vocals, Darcy plays hammered dulcimer, Irish bouzouki, English concertina, bodhran and rhythm bones.

3:00 Oreo the Bad Pirate Bird Battery Point
An African Raven; his heart is as black as his feathers, and he will tell you so. He is a truly rotten member of the Crew who lies, fights, and steals... see who will win the duel between Oreo and Bloodthirsty Barbara!

3:30 Meet Captain Jack Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
Join Jack's Crew and learn what it takes to be a real pirate!

3:30 Stephen Christoff Pirate Hunters' Camp
Stephen Christoff will sing rambunctious songs of drink, thievery and the sea and play several unique instruments including the Octave Mandolin, Jew's Harp, Musical Saw, Spanish Guitar, Trombone, Comb and Paper, Spoons and Hands.

4:00 Pub Singing Bunch of Grapes Tavern
Sea chanties, working and drinking songs are part of the pirates' life. Become a part of the crew as you learn some of the pirate standards, "Drunken Sailor", "Wyldy Rover", "Strike the Bell" with a little nautical humor thrown in.

4:00 C Shells Lil Swashbucklers' Stage
This 4-time Parents' Choice Award Winning children's duo will have you and your little scallywags singing and dancing along with songs of the sea and other fun songs.

4:00 House of Cadarn Pirate Hunters' Camp
Stacy Cassidy and Roger Collins perform early American sea chanties.

4:00 Cannon Shoot & Demo Battery Point